MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

President/CEO – J. Michael Belz

Dear Member:

The summer issue of our magazine is always my favorite. Why might you ask? Because it's full of young people doing incredible things.

Working Together

Our cover celebrates our Join Hands Day projects where young people and adults get to work together to make their community better. These projects break down the chasm that often exists between the generations. Every year cemeteries are cleaned, food is collected, flowers are distributed, and many more projects take place that benefits parishes and communities. And nowhere in these photos do you find someone staring at their phone. Instead, everyone is engaged, determined, and successful. Please see pages 14–19 for more photos.

Dreaming Big

On pages 7–8, our Poster Contest winners offer a glimpse of what kids today want to be when they grow up. Not only are they artistically talented, but they are not afraid to dream big. Our winners want to be veterinarians, architects, firefighters, police officers, and teachers. They truly demonstrate that the best may be yet to come.

Future Leaders

Grades played an important role in why judges selected our 2019 All American Scholars. However, it was their volunteer and community service that truly set them apart. These 35 graduating high school seniors were chosen to receive a $1,000 award to help them pay for their first year of college. We are proud of these young men and women and are glad to take part in the educational journey.

In closing, we thank you for allowing us to serve you and your family. We hope that you will continue to rely on the products and services that we offer to help you protect your family and to meet your financial goals.

Sincerely,

J. Michael Belz
President/CEO

UPDATE YOUR INFORMATION

If you've attended your Branch meeting this year, you may have been asked to complete a "Help Us Update Our Records" card. This is part of a two-year initiative to gather updated contact information from members.

We thank all the members who have completed these cards at their annual Branch meeting. We've been busy updating our records. However, not all members can attend their annual meeting. Also, some meetings haven't occurred yet.

Like a lot of people, our members have dropped their home landlines in favor of their cell phones. In many instances, however, they have forgotten to share their cell number with us.

We decided to take action after repeated unsuccessful attempts by Home Office staff to reach members about critical information regarding their certificate.

Why Do We Need Your Information?

From time to time, our Home Office staff needs to reach you. Often, we need immediate action, and mailing a letter takes too long. Your payment may have gone astray, and your coverage is in jeopardy of lapsing, or we need to get in touch with a beneficiary regarding a death claim.

What Information Do We Need?

If you've had a change in your address, telephone number or email in the last few years, please complete the attached card and drop it in the mail. You can also email the information to mscenter@cliu.com or call the Membership Service Center at 1-800-262-2548 during regular business hours. Be sure to include your name and the certificate number, if you know it.

Our goal is to provide the best customer service possible, and our hands are tied without your updated information.

HONORING 50 YEARS OF SERVICE

President Belz, retired Corporate Secretary Kathy May, District IV Director Mike Stolowski, and Branch President Tom Stuebben present a plaque to Monroe Frerich in appreciation for his 50 years of service to Catholic Life.

"We have been blessed to have people like Monroe and Pauline as part of our organization," said President J. Michael Belz. "They have helped Catholic Life grow. We can't say 'thank you' enough."

TIRRES TO LEAD NAFIC

General Agent Jimmy Tirres, who leads the San Antonio General Agency, has been elected President of the National Association of Fraternal Insurance Counselors (NAFIC). President J. Michael Belz installed Tirres at the organization's national convention held May 1-3, 2019 in Cape Coral, Florida.

The theme of the three-day meeting was "Charting Your Course for Success."

NAFIC is comprised of 3,500 Agents throughout the United States and Canada. The purpose of the organization is to "serve and promote the fraternal insurance agent through a foundation of education and benevolence."

picnic social. There was a brass band playing patriotic music, free commemorative t-shirts for the attendees, a balloon artist clown, and face painters. As well, our Flag Day Poster Contest winners were given special recognition during the ceremony.

This year, we invited children in grades Kindergarten through 5th Grade to participate in our annual Children's Flag Day Poster Contest—and we received nearly 700 entries! This year's theme was "What do you want to be when you grow up?" and the participants let us know in their posters about who they want to be. We selected a total of 21 entries to receive cash prizes.

Catholic Life would like to thank all of those who entered the contest, and we encourage all those who will be eligible next year to participate again.

For the 27th consecutive year, Catholic Life Insurance hosted its annual old fashioned flag raising ceremony to celebrate Flag Day. The event took place on Thursday, June 13th in honor of the 242nd anniversary of the American Flag. Approximately 150 people gathered to observe the Flag Raising and enjoy refreshments.

This year's event began in the evening with a Mass, officiated by Rev. Larry Christian, followed by the flag raising ceremony and a

Faith in Action

Our Easter season has resounded with joy at our Savior's resurrection and return to His Father. Lenten fasting once again transforms into Resurrection feasting! Alleluia!

Today we reflect on the Father to Whom Jesus ascended. The Apostles Creed, guide for our faith, begins thus: "I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth." The Creed, written from its post-Resurrection perspective, calls God "Father" as the first Person of the Holy Trinity. In the Old Testament, understanding God as Triune was not much evident except through "hints." But the expanding revelation of the "One God in Three Persons" would emerge with greater clarity following Jesus' Incarnation and the Spirit's coming at Pentecost. Thus the Creed begins by declaring faith in "God the Father Almighty."

What is revealed here, besides God's divine Fatherhood, is God's absolute might (or omnipotence). No being or power exceeds – or even approaches – the unimaginable might of God. It appears first in Genesis 1 with His creation "of heaven and earth." Out of nothing He made all that exists, visible and invisible. Nothing exists that God has not made, and nothing continues in existence that He does not sustain.

The implications of God's omnipotence are myriad, but consider just two. First, though God's glory shines forth in countless ways in the created world – from the amazing complexity of the atom to the incalculable expanse of space – we must not suppose that Nature is God. No natural phenomenon deserves our worship, no matter how awe-inspiring. Nature did not make itself, nor does any aspect of it supersede God's glory as its Source.

Second, if God created everything (including mankind in His image), then we are not God either. Occupied with our work, relationships, and future, we might imagine life is all about us and through us, forgetting our utter dependence on God. He, however, will abide no false idol, least of all our attempt to be our own gods.

Amazingly, the "Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth" desires to be in close relationship with His created image-bearers, and this we will explore next time. Meanwhile, I pray that you rest in the paternal care of our Father-God!

Have you ever considered owning your insurance instead of renting it?

Many of our members purchased term life insurance for the following reasons:

- Fits into their budget (Most inexpensive insurance)
- Took care of their immediate family needs if they were to pass away
- Have protection for a fixed period of time (10, 20 or 30 years)
- Can be renewed
- Can be converted to a permanent policy with no insurability

If you purchased term insurance years ago, many factors in your life may have changed since then and may warrant a meeting with your agent.

Consider the following questions and examples.

Is my household earning more income?

If you are earning more income than before, you may consider increasing your insurance amount to adequately protect your family.

Do you have a smaller or a larger home mortgage?

If your mortgage is smaller, you may be overinsured and should consider converting a portion of your term life policy to a permanent life policy and dropping off some of your remaining term (with the guidance of your agent). If your mortgage has increased, you may consider looking at increasing your term coverage or reviewing permanent insurance options for your family.

What happens to your term insurance when the term period is reached (10, 20 or 30 year term periods)?

If you reach your term period and continue to pay your premiums, it will automatically renew at a higher premium amount each year. Many of our members may find in the later years it can be very expensive to maintain their policy, making the least expensive option become the most expensive option.

What options do you have before to your term period ends?

You will be eligible to convert your term policy to most of our permanent policies if you are under the age of 70 and if your current term policy is in-force (all premium payments have been received at Catholic Life Insurance). The benefits of permanent life insurance are similar to the benefits of purchasing a home. With permanent policies, you can build cash value (similar to equity in a home) and can have access to these cash values by taking loans or partial withdrawals from your policy. Also, permanent policies give the member the option of lifetime protection instead of temporary protection.

Most importantly if your health has changed, you could either be uninsurable or highly rated. Converting could be a more affordable option than waiting for your term to renew. If you were to convert your term policy to a permanent policy, you do not need to medically retest for the new policy.

When was the last time you had a meeting with your agent to review your current insurance needs?

While there are many advantages to using both term and permanent insurance coverages, it is important to review with your agent any changes in your life that could affect your current or future insurance needs.

As always, we appreciate the enormous trust and responsibility that you have given us to protect your families and their way of life.

Congratulations to our 2019 All American Scholars

Each year, Catholic Life Insurance awards 35 scholarships worth $1,000 each to graduating high school seniors who have gone above and beyond in their civic duties and made a difference in their communities.

The All American Scholar Award was designed to offset tuition costs for young Catholic Life members attending an accredited college or university in the fall semester immediately following their senior year of high school. ## JOIN HANDS DAY is a national day of service designed to encourage youth and adults to work together on a project that benefits the community.

Here's to Your Health

The USDA's Dietary Guidelines recommend adults eat anywhere from 5 to 13 servings of fruits and vegetables per day depending on age, gender, physical activity, and overall health.

With this in mind, we began looking through recipes that members had submitted over the years. While we don't think the USDA would approve of all of the sugar and butter contained in the ones we selected, we are sure that these recipes will delight your family.

Frozen Fruit Salad

1 (8 oz.) pkg. cream cheese, softened
¾ cup sugar
1 (10 oz.) pkg. frozen strawberries
1 large can drained crushed pineapple
½ cup chopped nuts
3 bananas, sliced thin
1 (8 oz.) container Cool Whip

Beat cream cheese and sugar. Mix with the remaining ingredients. Pour into a 9x13" pan; freeze. Take out 30 minutes before serving. This will keep 6 months in the freezer.

Note from the chef: This fruit salad is one of our family favorites. My son is 8 years old and he requests this to be made often, and whenever we need to take a dessert this is the one we pick.

Enjoy!

Combine 1 cup flour, ½ cup sugar, salt and cinnamon. Knead butter with flour mixture until coarse (resembling corn meal). Combine peaches, lemon juice, lemon peel, ½ cup sugar and ¼ cup flour. Spoon into a greased 9" square dish. Sprinkle flour mixture over the peaches. Bake covered for 15 minutes. Remove cover and bake 35–45 minutes longer.
